

An Examiner's Amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 C.F.R. §1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the Issue Fee.

Claim 7 was cancelled without prejudice to the filing of a divisional or continuing application.

Authorization for this Examiner's Amendment was given in a telephone interview with Stephanie Wardwell on February 25, 2010.

The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance:

Examiner has reviewed all of the newly submitted prior art now of record and has found no disclosure therein, taken alone or in combination with prior art already of record, that would support a new prior art rejection. More specifically, the references, including those citing Mssr. Sekine (applicant herein) as a co-author, differ from the instant process claims because, while the process goal is the same as herein, the prior art references present processes wherein there is only a single catalyst/promoter added to the reaction, while in the instant claims a pair of substances selected from two different groups of compounds are required additives, a combination not found to have been disclosed or taught as a limitation applied to any phosphoramidite coupling reaction in any prior art reference presently of record.

Examiner has also reviewed applicant's amendments together with the above amendment and finds that examiner's previous suggestions concerning amendments necessary to achieve allowability have been entered into the claims save for the duplication found in the above cancelled claim, a problem (failure to further limit) solved by the above amendment.

Therefore, the instant claims, not having any new grounds of rejection determined to be applicable, are found to be allowable as presently of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the Issue Fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the Issue Fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
